

An aerial photograph of a modern, multi-story house with a large, curved wooden deck. On the deck, there is a rectangular hot tub with bubbling water, a long stone fire pit with a fire burning inside, and a stone grill with two wooden chairs nearby. The house has large glass windows and a curved exterior wall. The deck is bordered by a black metal railing. The surrounding area is a well-maintained lawn with some landscaping.

summer tip

Install your spa in a shaded spot in your backyard to shield your family from the sun's rays throughout the summer months.

Leave some space around your spa to give you room to throw parties and festivities.

a foundation for lasting memories

TOTAL RELAX ATION

Don't let the cold get in the way of total relaxation.

Placing your spa near your backdoor puts less space between you and the warm water during cooler months.

completely escape

Don't let the weather get you down. Utilize the right landscaping to add beauty and protect your spa from the weather.

Place your spa inside your garden or under structures to add some flair and allow you to enjoy your spa without having to worry about the elements.

TOTAL SOLI TUDE

Plants and screens can provide additional privacy, allowing you to completely disconnect from the outside world during moments you spend in your spa.

relax and rejuvenate

Escape from the pressures of daily life right from the comfort of your own backyard.

Whether your spa is vaulted into the ground or enclosed indoors, Sundance® spas can renew your backyard and transform it into a haven that you, your family and friends can enjoy for years to come.
